

MARKET DIRECTIONS™ & PRICES DIRECT™ PREMIUM

Making grain marketing decision making easier, with in-depth market insights and support

BENEFITS

- Increased confidence in decision making and help to make educated grain marketing decisions
- No need to monitor numerous messages from individual buyers
- A better understanding of market drivers and the changing market dynamics
- Your interests first, with truly independent advice

For growers wanting to add more value to their Market Directions™ and Prices Direct™ subscriptions, there is Market Directions and Prices Direct Premium.

As a Premium client, you receive Market Directions and Prices Direct. You add telephone support with an experienced grain marketing Agribusiness Consultant and participate in three Grain Market Briefing Sessions.

Market Directions and Prices Direct will enhance communication within your team with independent grain market intelligence and commentary, and the best published daily cash, delivered end user and buyers call prices for your port zone.

Our telephone support will assist you in making confident and timely grain marketing decisions and help resolve issues and challenges as they arise.

Learn from and network with grain growers who have the same challenges as you, by participating in our pre-harvest, mid-year and post-harvest Grain Market Briefing Sessions.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Advice provided via telephone support will be general advice. Pinion Advisory does not know, or seek to know, an individual Market Directions and Prices Direct Premium client's financial, business or cropping position. Hence, Pinion Advisory cannot provide clients with specific marketing advice. Any communication is given in good faith and is general in nature. It does not account for an individual's particular circumstances.

Pinion Advisory team members can provide factual statements based on historical information, or express a considered opinion of commodity markets.

Pinion Advisory will not provide derivative or OTC swaps product advice to Premium clients. The provision of AFSL product advice is limited to Pinion Advisory Grain Marketing Service (GMS) clients.

Calls from Market Directions and Prices Direct Premium clients will be dealt with as quickly as possible. Access to a grain marketing Agribusiness Consultant may be immediate. However, this cannot be guaranteed, particularly during peak periods. Calls will be returned as quickly as possible, within a maximum 24 hour time period. Phoning during the morning can help to manage any delays.

Payment of your subscription invoice is deemed that you have read and accepted the terms and conditions.
