

CAPABILITY STATEMENT

Tony Kanaris

Lead Consultant
QLD/NT
Irrigation

CONTACT DETAILS

0427 327 790

PO Box 137
Beenleigh QLD 4207

QUALIFICATIONS

- Master of Integrated Water Management

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

- Irrigation Australia Limited

Tony is a Senior Irrigation Consultant and part of the Pinion Advisory Queensland Team.

He is an irrigation professional with 30 years of experience in the commercial, sports turf & golf course irrigation industry and is passionate about providing quality service and working closely with his clients to deliver practical and sustainable outcomes.

Tony has experience in many aspects of the industry from design, installation, manufacturing and sales. He has also been involved in the ongoing development of the industry via several volunteer roles within the Irrigation Association (IAL) & QLD Sports Turf Association (QSTA).

Areas of expertise

- Irrigation hydraulic design (CAD Designer)
- Irrigation system audits
- Feasibility/budgeting
- Specifications/schedules
- Master planning
- Commercial landscape
- Public open spaces/sports turf
- Golf courses
- Pumping/filtration/ water treatment
- Recycled water/storm water projects

Professional experience

- Pinion Advisory – Senior Consultant Irrigation, 2023-current
- Hydro Vision Pty Ltd – General Manager, 2020-2023
- Turf Irrigation Services – Business Manager, 2015-2020
- Broadwater Consultants – Owner, 2007-2015

CAPABILITY STATEMENT

Relevant projects

| PROJECT                                | ROLE                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | CLIENT                             | YEAR/S DELIVERED |
|----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|------------------|
| Brisbane Airport Parallel Runway       | Collaborative design of irrigation system utilising recycled water. Hydraulic calculations for pipe network and pump station selection & design. Prepare ongoing water usage data reports during construction to client | Brisbane Airport Corporation (BAC) | 2018-2020        |
| Yeppoon Golf Course                    | Complete design & documentation for new 18 hole irrigation system & pump station                                                                                                                                        | Yeppoon GC                         | 2021             |
| Sanctuary Cove 'Class A Water' Project | Project manage the construction phase of the 'Class A Water' project for Sanctuary Cove Resort                                                                                                                          | Sanctuary Cove Body Corporate      | 2021-2023        |
| Federation Walk Revitalisation Project | Project manage the construction phase of the 'Recycled Water' project for revitalisation of sand dunes at The Spit, Gold Coast                                                                                          | City of Gold Coast                 | 2021-2023        |
| Blackwater Golf Club                   | Complete design & documentation for new 18 hole irrigation system & pump station utilising recycled water                                                                                                               | Central Highlands Regional Council | 2020-2021        |
| Boonah Golf Club                       | Complete design & documentation for new 18 hole irrigation system & pump station utilising recycled water                                                                                                               | Boonah GC                          | 2020             |
| Dolphin Oval (Redcliffe Rugby League)  | Complete design & documentation for redevelopment of Dolphin Oval for new NRL franchise – Redcliffe Dolphins                                                                                                            | Redcliffe RLFC                     | 2021             |